The applicants counsel Matt Molloy and Amy Marshall inquired into not having received a supplemental office action for this application 10/669,463. In response, the examiner regrets that because of time constraints for end of the fiscal year 2007 he was unable to send another office action.

The alleged problem was a very minor one in that the examiner indicated that the applicants have a one month time limit to respond to the office action they now have in their possession. Applicants are hereby notified that they have "3" months from the date they received this office action to reply to the examiner. PTO will not find applicants at fault for the mistake of the examiner with respect to time limit and they are thus made aware that proper time limits for first office actions or office actions on the merits are three months.

Thus, for these reasons, no supplemental office action is deemed necessary to be provided to applicants.

Inquiries may be made to Paul Marcantoni at 571-272-1373.
